PRESS RELEASE

TSUKI

A 31Room Boutique Hotel in Tokyo · Tsukiji 「TSUKI」 Opening April 18, 2019

~Experience Beautiful Japanese Culture and Become Nippon Savvy~

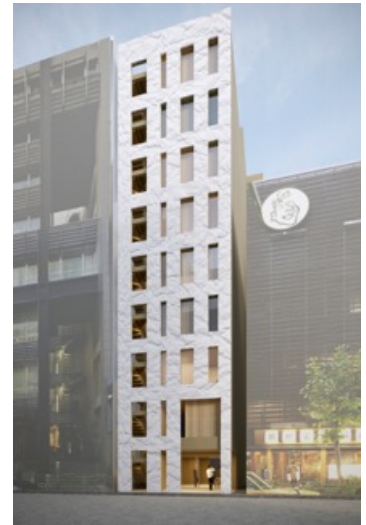

Agora Hotel Alliance TSUKI (General Manager Toshiki Sakaguchi, Address: Tsukiji 1-9-4, Chuo Ward, Tokyo) will open a 31 room boutique hotel April 18, 2019, where guests are able to experience the essence of Japanese culture.

A hotel where you can become NIPPON SAVVY

TSUKI provides travel opportunities through which you may experience both traditional and contemporary Japanese culture and spirit.

Tsukiji, Tokyo is known as a famous place for Japanese food. Many tourists, from Japan and abroad, visit the various sightseeing spots.

TSUKI is a hotel in Tsukiji with the concept “a hotel where you can become Nippon Savvy”, a neighborhood where skilled artisans have maintained their trade and protected the traditions that continue to this day. Focusing on the traditional spirit of Japanese harmony, we offer experiences such as thorough enjoyment of a traditional Japanese hot bath, savoring of fine Japanese sake, but most importantly, the unique Japanese hospitality. Guests from Japan may reacquaint themselves with the beauty of Japanese culture and those from abroad will enjoy the experience of becoming Nippon Savvy through firsthand experiences with beautiful Japan.
